As Senior Vice President & Chief Legal Officer, Brian is responsible for all legal matters including those related to regulatory compliance, business development, contract negotiation, contract management, intellectual property protection, dispute resolution, litigation and the oversight of outside counsel arising from business processes and operations.

Brian also serves as the company's Chief Information Security Officer. He and his team designed and implemented companywide protocols to ensure ongoing compliance and promote a high standard of business ethics.

In his role as Chief Legal Officer, Brian conducts regular meetings with senior management and collaborates across business units to integrate legal and risk management strategies into the business process.

Prior to joining SIAA, Brian was Litigation Counsel and Vice President of Risk Management at Thermo Fisher Scientific, Inc., a global distributor of life science products and services. Brian began his career as a Special Assistant Attorney General for the Commonwealth of Massachusetts working on complex civil litigation.

In 2010, Brian was elected to the New Hampshire Legislature where he served as Vice-Chair of the House Business Coalition, and a Member of the House Judiciary Committee. In 2017 Brian accepted an appointment from Governor Sununu to serve on the NH Judicial Council.

Brian holds a Juris Doctor degree from the John Marshall Law School, Chicago, Illinois and a B.S. degree from Fairfield University, Connecticut.
