

John (Jack) Calabrese

SVP of SIAA's Life Insurance Division

Joined SIAA in 2018

In this new role for SIAA, Jack is accelerating adoption of, and expanding, our life insurance products and services. Subsequent to reviewing and appropriately adjusting the Life Insurance relationships that SIAA has traditionally offered, his collaboration with SIAA Marketing will establish life insurance as a significant revenue-generating product offering for member agencies, master agencies, and SIAA.

Prior to joining SIAA, Jack was Director of External Learning Services for Lincoln Financial Group, Director of Training for Liberty Mutual Benefits, and also held positions at Liberty Mutual as Director of Implementation Services and Director of Hiring & Training.

Jack holds several insurance designations including the CLU, AALU, FLMI and is currently attending the CPDM program for group benefits. Jack attended Southern New Hampshire University of Manchester, NH as a Communications major, and Franklin Pierce University, Rindge, NH.

He and his wife, Deborah, live in Dover, NH. They have two children.
